TORAH PRAYER

Bar'chu et Adonai ham'vorach.

Bless Adonai who is blessed.

Baruch Adonai ham'vorach l'olam va-ed.

Blessed is Adonai who is blessed now and forever.

*Baruch atah, Adonai
Eloheinu, Melech haolam,
asher natan lanu Torat emet, v'chayei olam nata b'tocheinu.*

Baruch atah, Adonai, notein haTorah.

Blessed are You, Adonai our God, Sovereign of the universe,
who has given us a Torah of truth, implanting within us eternal life.

Blessed are You, Adonai, who gives the Torah.

OUR FATHER

“This is a requirement [Chukat / statute] of the law [Torah] that the LORD has commanded: Tell the Israelites to bring you a red heifer [parah adumah].”

(Numbers 19:2)

RED HEIFER UPDATE

Crossing Over

The Bridge from Impurity to Purity

- Borne without spot or wrinkle
- Never had a yoke
- It would be burned outside the temple
- Ashes used for purification of the waters
- Purify those contaminated by death
- One purified they could enter the temple
(Yeshua)

Yeshua's Blood

The Bridge from Impurity to Purity

- New Church will be without spot or wrinkle
“For if the blood of bulls and goats and the ashes of a heifer, sprinkling the unclean, sanctifies for the purifying of the flesh, how much more shall the blood of Messiah, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without spot to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the Living God?” (Hebrews 9:13–14)

Miriam

Miriam had played an important role in the prophetic fulfillment of God's promise to bring Israel out of Egypt, and two of the biggest highlights involved water.

- She led Moses; the women singing as they crossed the red sea
- The people mourned; not having water after her death
- A vine can represent a mother at home with her children, like little shoots all around her table; therefore, some commentaries say that the people who complained were mourning the loss of Miriam, who was like a mother to the Israelites, especially the women and children. If this is true, they were misdirecting their anguish. (Psalms 128:3)

Watch Your Anger

- Moses response: “Listen, you rebels, shall we get water for you out of this rock?” (Numbers 20:10)
- The Hebrew word for rebels (morim) is spelled the same as the name Miriam in Hebrew.
- Hit the Rock instead of speaking to the rock
 - Obedience is better than sacrifice
- Some say Moses was still mourning. Take time to mourn your love one’s death

Watch Your Anger

Moses failed to model obedience at a time when all of Israel was looking to him for leadership.

Therefore, the name of the water was called Meribah (which means to argue, strive or contend).

“Those were the waters of Meribah, because the sons of Israel contended with the LORD, and He proved Himself holy among them.” (Numbers 20:13)

Tend To Your Emotions

whatever we repress instead of dealing with it will ultimately demand attention. And it might be expressed in ways not pleasing to God.

- Moses should have cried out to God
- Moses should have taken time to grieve
- Rivers of water out of your belly
 - Yeshua is our cleanser
 - We are to be restorers like Yeshua

Be A River

He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. (John 7:38) 'zaō'

- Live life breathing
- Live with moral character
- Have vital power
- Be full of vigor
- Be strong, efficient and quick
- Be a source; be a supplier

Be A Source

"For the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of living water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes." (Revelation 7:17)

- Be encouraged
- Remember, Christ is coming back

Be Blessed

Adonai (Yehovah) bless you and keep you.
Adonai (Yehovah) make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you. Adonai (Yehovah) lift up His countenance upon you, and give you peace.
